I N T R O D U C T I O N

Father Adrien Chomel's warm acknowledgment of the help he received in writing the history of the College Annonay from the chronicle of the College kept by Father Julien Tracol from 1832 to 1874 stirred me to attempt something like it for St. Michael's College. Information gleaned from diaries kept by confreres of earlier generations, e.g. Fathers Michael Mungovan and Michael Ferguson, confirmed me in this desire.

Under the jurisdiction of the Superior of St. Michael's College in the years 1936-1940 were five distinct units, namely, the High School Department, the College Department, the Institute of Mediaeval Studies, St. Basil's Parish, and the Annesi Farms. During the later years there was also St. Michael's Social Guild and the work of Marylake Farm.

Throughout the course of the years covered by this chronicle I was directly engaged in the work of the Library of the Institute of Mediaeval Studies and the problems of knowing what was happening the other parts of St. Michael's College caused my enthusiasm for the chronicle to taper off. In fact I used only 159 pages in the modest record book purchased for the keeping of this chronicle.

This morning Father Carlisle LeBel left the College Infirmary, and Father Terence McLuaghlin went to Assumption College, Windsor, where he is to give a series of lectures this week. In the evening Dr. Gerald B. Phelan left for New York where he is to preach the students' retreat at Manhattanville College.

March 2nd, Monday. The Midget hockey team tied East A.C., 2-2, in a Toronto Hockey League play-off game at Royal Canadian Rink this evening. In the first game of an Ontario Hockey Association play-off series, the Junior B team lost to Barrie in Barrie, 5-4, this evening. This week Father William Brown goes to Perpetual Help Church to say the 7:30 Mass because the pastor is in the South for his health. Father Edwin Garvey goes to the Good Shepherd Convent to say Mass this week. Father E.J. McCorkell shortened spiritual reading to allow the priests to attend a lecture on radium given by Mr. Gilbert LaBine in the auditorium. Mr. LaBine is a prospector who owns the only radium mine in Canada. His son, Lenard, is in 2B and plays on the midget hockey team. Father Hugh Haffey, science teacher, met Mr. LaBine when he was helping on Sundays at Blessed Sacrament Church and arranged tonight's lecture. Mr. Fraser-Reed, chief chemist of Mr. LaBine's radium refinery at Port Hope illustrated the lecture with colored motion pictures. After the lecture Mr. LaBine gave advice to interested students on prospecting as a career.

March 3rd, Tuesday. The minute book of the Holy Angels' Sodality was retired to the archives today. It has been in use since 1860 and is quite worn. Father Joseph Walsh left for Detroit tonight when he received word that his brother, Father Frank Walsh, had taken a serious turn. Father Frank has been ill since Christmas with a heart condition. The Junior A team lost the second OHA group play-off game to West Toronto, 6-1, in a game played at Maple Leaf Gardens tonight.

March 4th, Wednesday. Father George Flahiff gave a theological conference on the virtue of charity in place of spiritual reading. Father Joseph Muckle went to Holy Rosary Church to preach this evening. Father Edward Pokriefka left the Infirmary today. The Interfaculty hockey team, coached by Father Wilfred Kehoe, lost to the School of Practical Science, 5-2, today and now are finished for the season. This afternoon an early thaw caused more water to seep into the new boiler room than the temporary pump could handle. Before a second pump was secured the floor was more or less under water.

March 5th, Thursday. Professor Jacques Maritain resumed his lectures at 3:30 this afternoon. Father William Murray came in from the Annesi Farm and stayed overnight. Father William Brown went to Perpetual Help Church to assist with the confessions before the First Friday. Slow wood fires were lighted under Boilers No. 1 and No. 2 in the new plant today. They are used to dry out the cement used in their construction.

The midget team played another 2-2 tie game with East A.C. at Royal Canadian Rink tonight.

March 7th, Saturday. High Mass in honor of the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas at seven o'clock in St. Basil's Church this morning. Father Michael Oliver is in the Infirmary with a cold today. Professor Jacques Maritain lectured at St. Basil's Scholasticate this afternoon and was in at supper. This evening Father McCorkell preached in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

March 23rd, Monday. Father Joseph McGahey goes to the Good Shepherd Convent for Mass this week. Dr. Phelan went to Tokio to give a lecture.

March 24th, Tuesday. Father Oliver left the Infirmary today. Tonight the Junior B team defeated Guelph, 7-6, in an overtime OHA final played at Maple Leaf Gardens. The boarders in the High School were not allowed out to attend the game — reason, they should do some penance during Lent.

March 25th, Wednesday. Professor Jacques Maritain was in at supper. The oratorical contest, sponsored by Father Hugh Haffey and scheduled for this evening, was postponed at the last minute until next Monday to suit the convenience of the judges. The handball alleys were clean and dry for the first time this year. They are badly in need of a coat of paint and new floors. Father Richard T. Burke is displeased with some points in an anonymous biography of himself — written by Father Henry Carr who was in the Novitiate with him — printed in the April issue of The Basilian which was distributed today.

March 26th, Thursday. Professor Jacques Maritain was indisposed and unable to give his lecture today. Dr. Phelan returned this morning. The first game of softball this year was played in the yard today. At supper time a very conspicuous sign, "Bayholme Maternity Home" was seen hanging underneath one of the windows of Mr. Dwyer's room in No. 10 Elmsley Place — the Institute of Mediaeval Studies. It was in good condition but where it came from and who put it there is not known.

March 27th, Friday. The "Bayholme Maternity Home" sign appeared under Mr. Robert Miller's room in No. 10 Elmsley this morning. By noon it had disappeared. The Junior B team lost an overtime OHA final game to Guelph 8-6, in Galt. A third game is now necessary and it will be played at Maple Leaf Gardens next week. Fathers Austin Brown and Stanley Lynch accompanied the team which left by bus about 4:00 p.m. and returned immediately after the game.

March 28th, Saturday. The Midget hockey team defeated St. Cyprian's, 1-0, in a THL final played at Varsity Arena tonight.

Father Joseph Muckle was driven to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church immediately after the 9:00 o'clock Mass where he addressed the Communion Breakfast of the Young Peoples' Club. Dr. Phelan went away tonight. After evening devotions Father E.J. McCorkell, assisted by Father Leonard Rush and Mr. Thomas Slattery, administered Extreme Unction to Father Robert McBrady in the Infirmary.

March 30th, Monday. Father McBrady was somewhat better today. This evening the last minor hockey team of the College was eliminated when the Midget team lost a THL play-off game to St. Cyprian's by the score 5-0. Father Terence McLaughlin goes to the Good Shepherd Convent and Father Alexander Denomy to St. Mary's Hospital to say Mass this week. The second annual oratorical contest for students in the High School was held under Father Hugh Haffey's direction in the auditorium this evening. Mr. Dwan, MPP, and Mr. Gordon Watson, barrister, as judges awarded the gold medal to Anthony De Lucca. Father McCorkell spoke briefly. The attendance was small due to the closeness of the Easter exams.

March 31st, Tuesday. Professor Maritain was in at supper. Father Denomy was confined to his room with a cold today.

April 1st, Wednesday. Easter examinations began in the high school department this morning. There are two examinations of one and a half hours in the morning and one of two hours in the afternoon. Professor Jacques Maritain gave his last lecture at 10:00 o'clock in the library of the Institute of Mediaeval Studies this morning. At spiritual reading, Father Joseph McGhaey gave a theological conference on the order of charity.

April 2nd, Thursday. The Thurible appeared this morning. It is a student-alumni review and is expected to replace the Year Book for the students and to keep the alumni in touch with the College, something the Year Book failed to do. Dr. Gerald B. Phelan returned this morning. Professor Jacques Maritain left for New York this morning. He intends to return to France on the Ile de France which sails Saturday.

April 3rd, Friday. The Junior B Hockey team defeated Geulph 12-4 in a game played at Maple Leaf Gardens tonight. The boarders in the High School received permission to attend the game and it put them back into good humor. The Junior B team won the title when the cup was first offered two years ago, lost out in the final round which went to four games last year, and this year won the cup for the second time. Each time they have beaten bigger, older and better players because coach Dr. Jerry Laflamme, DDS, has taught them the secret of team play especially when ganging for goals.

April 4th, Saturday. Examinations end in the High School at noon. Boarders in the High School received a free permission till six o'clock. Father Louis Bondy went away to preach a retreat. Father Daniel Forestell went to Syracuse to do some preliminary canvassing for new students.

Father Oliver read the Passion at the morning Masses while the celebrant was saying it, and later read the announcements, epistle and gospel. In the evening after Compline, Father E.J. McCorkell preached on Christ the King. The Solemn Blessing of the Palm at the eleven o'clock Mass lasted until 12:45 p.m.

April 6th, Monday. Father Austin Brown goes to the Good Shepherd Convent and Father Edwin Garvey to St. Mary's Hospital for Mass until Thursday. Father McIssac, CSSR, is preaching the retreat for the High School students which began at nine this morning. In the past the boarders and day scholars made separate retreats and the retreat began Tuesday night and lasted until Saturday morning. The boarders in the high school had supper at 5:30 so that they would not break the silence by eating with the university students. At the noonday meal there was reading for all because of their retreat. The day scholars were free after the 3:30 exercise and very few accepted the invitation to attend those held later in the day.

April 7th, Tuesday. The retreat for the high school students ended at four this afternoon. Father Daniel Forestell returned today. While the High School boarders were leaving for their homes, Father Augustine, CP, began the retreat for all Arts students, day scholars as well as boarders, at 8:00 p.m. in St. Basil's Church. The timetable for the annual examinations of the University of Toronto was released today. A meeting of the professors of the Institute of Mediaeval Studies was held tonight in Dr. Gerald B. Phelan's room to draw up the course of studies for publication in next year's Syllabus. Steam from Boiler No. 2 of the new heating plant was turned on in the new building to replace the temporary heat from the hoisting engine which was used in the pouring of the concrete pillars and floors.

April 8th, Wednesday. Tenebrae in St. Basil's Church at 7:30 p.m. Father Joseph O'Donnell left for Woodstock to do Easter work at the parish where his brother Ambrose is pastor. The meeting of the Institute staff which was adjourned last night completed next year's course of studies. Noon hour Mass ends in St. Basil's Church. Father Robert Scollard said it every day this Lent at 12:05.

April 9th, Thursday. Father E.J. McCorkell sang the Holy Thursday High Mass in St. Basil's Church at 7:00 a.m. Father Lawrence Lacey was deacon and Father E.P. "Jim" Magee was subdeacon. The choir was in the sanctuary on the epistle side and under the direction of Dr. Phelan as usual. Father Leonard Rush was at the organ. Priests occupied the gospel side of the sanctuary. Non-singing scholastics went to the choir loft. This order will be observed each day in Holy Week. Father Michael Oliver and Father Simon Perdue went to the Mass in St. Michael's Cathedral to get the Holy Oils. Father Oliver stayed there for dinner. Yesterday two cases of books, valued at $800 and weighing 785 lbs, arrived at the Institute Library from J. Vrin of Paris. Father E.C. LeBel preached in St. Dunstan's Church this evening and Father Hugh Haffey in Perpetual Help Church.

April 10th, Friday. Good Friday. Father Louis Bondy returned from Detroit where he preached the annual retreat for the students at Catholic Central High School. He brings word that Father Frank Walsh is showing some improvement though still in a critical condition and unable even to hold a newspaper to read. At Catholic Central 347 students have enrolled but the plant is equipped to handle only 300. Father Henry Carr is there at present, negotiating with the pastor on the matter. Father John McIntyre, the treasurer at Catholic Central, has a scales in the house and uses it to check the effect of his meals on the confreres. Father Louis Bondy sang the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified with Father John Collins as deacon and Father Raymond Prince as sub-deacon. Mr. John Sheehy was Master of Ceremonies because he is so tall that he can reach the cross from over the tabernacle. At the singing of the Passion, Dr. Gerald B. Phelan was the Christus; Father John Murphy, narrator; and Father Edmund Burns the synagogue. While few people from the parish attended the Mass the church was crowded at 3:00 p.m. with parishioners to hear Father Leonard Rush preach and then make the Way of the Cross. The congregation at Tenebrae in the evening was made up largely of Arts students on retreat. Father Augustine closed the retreat for the day scholars in Arts at 5:15 p.m. Father E.J. McCorkell preached in St. Brigid's Church this afternoon, Father Hugh Haffey in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Father Austin Brown at St. Dunstan's, and Father John Glavin at Holy Rosary Church. Father Joseph Muckle went to Newmarket to preach this afternoon but returned before Tenebrae. Father Benjamin Forner went to Bradford to preach. Father Wilfrid Dore went to Niagara on the Lake for Easter work and Father Reginald O'Donnell went to his home in Jarvis for the same purpose. This afternoon when both the Superior and Treasurer were out, Mr. John Ruth received word that his father had died quite unexpectedly, although he was not in good health. Father Louis Bondy put up $10 and borrowed $7.00 from Father Robert Scollard and $5.00 from Father Edward Pokriefka to get enough money to allow Mr. Ruth to go home on the 5:30 train. When Father John Glavin returned from Holy Rosary Church the debts were repaid. Father Viator McIntyre went to St. Clare's Church to hear confessions tonight.

Father McCorkell read the sections of the Constitutions applicable to the election and explained that he had offered to send to the College Annesi Farm for Father Murray. Father McBrady's condition was such that he could not even be considered. Father Rush was unavoidably absent, but he still enjoyed passive voice. The scholastics present could vote but they could not be voted for. He then appointed Father Richard Burke and Father Joseph Muckle as scrutineers, they being the oldest priests present. Father Wilfrid Kehoe was the youngest and him he named secretary. Thirty-three were present. Three ballots were required to elect the delegate as no one received the 17 votes required for an absolute majority

The missionaries preached at all Masses and in the afternoon opened a three day children's mission. In the evening the women's mission opened. Father Leonard Rush returned from St. Joseph's Hospital but will be confined to the Infirmary for a few days.

May 4th, Monday. Father Viator McIntyre who had gone to Windsor to officiate at the marriage of a relative returned today. He reports Father Hugh Mallon as somewhat better. Tonight was athletic night with the distribution of "M"s and sweaters to the members of the championship High School Rugby Team and the Junior B OHA Champions. Father Robert McBrady died in the Infirmary at 6:10 p.m. He was the last link with the old French Community. He had attended the classes of the founder of St. Michael's College and he was born before the second Bishop of Toronto had been appointed. On the occasion of his golden jubilee as a priest in 1924 his sole reply to the praises heaped upon him was, "I had my work to do and my prayers to say." Throughout his life he did both and when in his extreme old age his mind began to fail he would imagine himself as active in the classroom.

May 5th, Tuesday. Father Joseph Walsh returns from Detroit and reports his brother, Frank, as only slightly better. He had been sent for during a crisis last Thursday. Dr. Walsh and Dr. Moody returned to New York yesterday. During their stay here they lived in No. 5 Elmsley Place. Father McBrady's body was laid out in the parlour at 1:00 p.m. This evening, Father Richard Burke, who succeeds Father McBrady as the grand old man of the community, left for Scranton to attend the funeral of his cousin, Msgr. Lynett.

May 6th, Wednesday. Bishop R.H. Dignan celebrated a Solemn Pontifical Mass for the repose of the soul of Father Robert McBrady at the Good Shepherd Convent this morning. All the servers came from the College. At 9:00 p.m. Father McBrady's body was taken from the parlour to St. Basil's Church and the Office of the Dead was recited. Father Henry Bellisle from Assumption College, Fathers John McGuire and Joseph Kennedy from St. Mary's Parish, Owen Sound, are in the House now for the funeral.

May 7th, Thursday. Father James Whelan from Catholic Central High School, Detroit, arrived last night for Father Robert McBrady's funeral. At ten o'clock Bishop Dignan, a classmate of Father E.J. McCorkell, celebrated a Pontifical High Mass for Father McBrady's funeral. Fathers Joseph Muckle and Henry Bellisle were deacons of honor. Father M. Dunn, OFM, a nephew, was deacon and Father John McGuire was sub-deacon. Father McCorkell was Assistant Priest. Father Gerald Anglin was First Master of Ceremonies and Father Laurence Shook Second Master. Father Gregory Mallon was censerbearer. Jean Marois, native of Quebec City and youngest pupil in the high school, was train bearer. Fathers Louis Bondy, William Roach and Joseph Kennedy acted as pallbearers as scheduled, but Fathers Daniel Dillon, Wilfrid Sharpe and Joseph Walsh reneged and Fathers Hubert Coughlin, William Murray and Edward Tighe took their places. Bishop Denis O'Connor of Peterborough who is a graduate of Assumption College preached an eloquent sermon though he failed to mention the long years Father McBrady had spent in the priesthood. Present in the sanctuary was Bishop John Kidd who was asked to say the Mass once it was learned that Archbishop McGuigan would not be back from Winnipeg in time. However, Bishop Kidd had already come from London without bringing his robes. Msgrs. L.M. Forristal of St. Peter's Seminary, London, Thomas Ferguson of Brantford, William McCann of St. Francis Parish, Patrick Coyle of Holy Family Parish and Michael Cline of Holy Name Parish were also present. From the Diocese of Peterborough came Fathers Paul Costello who left the Congregation in 1922, McAuley, Guiry, Joseph Ferguson, Finn, Corkery. From the Diocese of London came Fathers Labelle, Kelly who is secretary to Bishop Kidd. Father McReavy came from the Diocese of Hamilton. Present from the Archdiocese of Toronto were Fathers W. Hugh Murray, O'Brien, Hodgins, Lellis, McGrand, Clair who is chancellor in spiritualibus, W.P. Mith, L.A. Markle, J.B. O'Reilly, B. Ellard, F. Pennylegion, R. Miller, J. Corrigan, S. McGrath, Lanphier, E. Kelly, W. Muckle, J. Reddin, Carberry, J. Coles, Clancy, C. O'Brien, Bennett, W. Egan, Webster, W. Fraser and B. Malone. Religious priests present were: Fathers Grannan, CSSR, MacDonald, CSSR, Noonan, SJ, B. Doyle, CSP, McNabb, CSP, A. Malone, CSP, Long, CM, and a Passionist Father. Brother Rogation, FSC, was also present. Bishops Kidd and Dignan together with a few priests stayed for dinner. Father Henry Carr officiated at the grave in Mount Hope Cemetery where Father McBrady was buried beside Leo Normandeau, the eighteen year old novice who was buried two weeks ago.

Thus the oldest and the youngest rest side by side. Only students in first and second year High School were allowed to attend the funeral for fear of crowding the Church. However, most of the Arts students did not attend because they were either writing or studying for examinations. Father Robert McBrady had so outlived the people who knew him best that the church could have held all the high school students without crowding others.

May 8th, Friday. Fathers James Whelan, Henry Bellisle, John McGuire and Joseph Kennedy returned home today. Father Gerald Kirby, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church in the city, underwent a two hour examination, oral, in the library of the Institute of Mediaeval Studies at 2:15 p.m. He is trying for a Ph.D. degree this year.

May 9th, Saturday. The death list was taken down from the Community Room wall in order to add Father Robert McBrady's name. Father John Glavin asked if Mr. Leo Normandeau's name ought to be put on it. Father R.T. Burke, who is now the grand old man of the Community though ten years younger and twelve years fewer in the priesthood than Father McBrady, returned this morning from the funeral of his cousin, Msgr. Lynett. Father Gerald Anglin and Dr. Gerald B. Phelan made preliminary arrangements for a tennis series between teachers of the Institute of Mediaeval Studies and the College. The Missionary Fathers preached this morning. Father Edward Pokriefka's garden, front and rear of No. 5 Elmsley Place is progressing favorably due to the warm weather and to the fact that the squirrels have learned that onion bulbs are not to their liking and hence have given up digging them out. Dignan of Sault Ste. Marie said the Mass and Father Gerald Anglin went over to the Convent to be Master of Ceremonies. Father McCorkell told Father Reginald O'Donnell that if he were in his place he would not play any baseball, handball or tennis until the autumn so as to rest up his broken ankle. It has been giving

The first of these is the fact that the population of the United States is increasing at a rapid rate. This is due to a number of causes, the most important of which are the increase in the birth rate, the decrease in the death rate, and the immigration of foreign-born people. The increase in the birth rate is due to a number of causes, the most important of which are the increase in the number of children born to each woman, the decrease in the number of children who die before they reach the age of five, and the increase in the number of children who survive to the age of five. The decrease in the death rate is due to a number of causes, the most important of which are the improvement in the medical arts, the improvement in the sanitary conditions of the country, and the improvement in the food supply. The immigration of foreign-born people is due to a number of causes, the most important of which are the desire for a better life, the desire for a better education, and the desire for a better job.

The second of these is the fact that the population of the United States is becoming more and more diverse. This is due to a number of causes, the
 most important of which are the immigration of foreign-born people, the increase in the number of children born to each woman, and the decrease in the number of children who die before they reach
